ADULT GUARDIANSHIP REQUIREMENTS

In order for a guardianship to be applied for, the ward MUST be an enrolled Comanche member. The Petitioner must present to the court documentation from two (2) physicians declaring the adult ward incompetent.

A home study is required in cases where permanent guardianship is requested.

It is the mission of the Comanche Nation Tribal Court to act in the best interest of the Comanche members. Therefore, at the Judge's discretion or the request of the Prosecutor, ALL PARTIES MAY BE SUBJECT TO RANDOM DRUG AND/OR ALCOHOL TESTING.

When a guardianship is applied for, it is understood by the Court that the applicant(s) has the means to provide for the care, custody, control, support and nurture of that ward.

Guardianship reviews are conducted every six (6) months in cases where Social Security benefits, or any other means of income is received and every eight (8) months where no form of income is received. Reviews may be modified in the Judge's discretion.

The appointed guardian is responsible for the income and expenses of the ward and must prepare an accounting to be presented to the Judge at the Review hearing.
